Whites

Pecorino - Poggio Anima "Gabriel", Italy

Not the cheese, but the grape! Fresh, lemony, and a little nutty. If Pinot Grigio is your safe bet, Pecorino is its Italian cousin with extra flair.

Vedejo - Bodegas Mocén "Mimozen", Spain

Crisp, citrusy, and herbal. Spain's answer to Sauvignon Blanc - zippy, refreshing, and mouth-watering.

Chardonnay - Molino a Vento, Sicily

Fresh and fruit-forward Sicilian Chardonnay with notes of ripe peach, melon, and citrus. Smooth and well-balanced, with a crisp finish.

Reds

Frappato - Santa Tresa "Rina Russa", Sicily, Italy

Light, juicy, and bursting with red cherries. Imagine Pinot Noir and Beaujolais taking a holiday in Sicily - that's Frappato. Delicious slightly chilled.

Tempranillo - Bodegas Artesa Organic, Rioja, Spain

Smooth and comforting, with ripe berries, gentle spice, and a touch of oak. If you enjoy Merlot or Cabernet blends, Rioja is right up your street.

Alicante Bouschet - Terra D'Alter AB, Alentejo, Portugal

One for Malbec lovers! A bold, deeply coloured red with intense dark berry flavours, hints of spice, and a rich, velvety texture.
